Bible Courses.

The Y. M. C. A. of the Valparaiso College offers three courses of study this year. They are all on the same plan, present a graded system, and were designed to meet the requirements of students in college.

1. Life of Christ—Sharman. Based on "Harmony of the Gospels."
2. Studies in The Acts and Epistles.—Bosworth.
3. Studies in Old Testament Characters.—White.

These classes meet on Sundays at times and places arranged by the classes as they are organized. This is one line of study you do not get in school. No man is truly educated without an intelligent knowledge of the Bible. Rufus Choate, the great lawyer, recommended to his students a certain amount of Bible study as an aid to their profession. Classes are open to all young men, with no expense but that for books. Further information may be had from E. D. Maddox, 15 Union hall, or 1 Mound hall.

The following graduating class pictures were made at my studio last year: Classic, Scientific, Pharmacy, Art, Kindergarten, Elocution, Surveying and Pedagogical. This means that the college students appreciate fine work. Bird Simon, photographer.

The Star and Crescent Programs.

Every year within the recollection of the oldest members of the Star and Crescent societies a movement has been placed on foot to do away with the old form of printed programs. Just as regularly has the object of the movement been defeated. There is a tendency among the members of the new organizations to flounder along in the same old ditch which was dug by their predecessors, without any well defined effort to get something in the way of a printed program which would be up-to-date and place the societies on the level road which is traveled by literary organizations in other colleges. We understand that when the contracts for the Star programs have expired at the end of the term, some of the progressive members will advocate a change to a neat one page program, sans ads, at least with the exception of possibly one small one. The question is: Will the Crescent people follow the good example set by their Twentieth Century sisters and brothers?

There are two kinds of art studios in Valparaiso: Mine and the rest of 'em. Bird Simon, over Salisbury's music store.

New students are coming in almost every day.

VALPARAISO, IND., - - - SEPTEMBER, 1902

The Goshen News is authority for the statement that Chas. P. Linger, a graduate of Valparaiso College, has purchased a half interest in the Nappanee News.

Don't accept a newspaper from the postoffice for a year or two, then, when the publisher sends you a simple statement of your account, raise the cry, "Stop my paper!" At least, don't do it without sending your remittance along with your order.

The editor had the pleasure of going through Miss Simon's studio a few days ago. It was not generally known that until just recently Miss Simon has been leasing the gallery at the corner of College ave and Union St. Since purchasing the gallery she has constantly been making improvements which will aid her in getting out pictures even better than her usual fine line of work.

Dr. C. A. Nixon has opened dental parlors at Hobart. The Doctor was a graduate from the Pharmacy department of Valparaiso College in 1900, and finished a course in dental surgery in the Chicago College of Dental Surgery this year, graduating with honors. We predict for him eminent success in his chosen profession.

The American College of Medicine and Surgery.

The American College of Medicine and Surgery will open its next annual session Wednesday, October 1st. The opening address will be given by Rev. Frank DeWitt Talmage, a member of the Advisory board. The Pharmacy band of the Valparaiso College, will furnish music. There will be short talks by various members of the Faculty. This is the college which was recently made the medical department of the Valparaiso College. The board of directors purchased from the Northwestern University their medical college and paraphernalia located at 333-335-337-339 South Lincoln St., Chicago. Extensive alterations and improvements were made during the summer, thus making the facilities for work much better than the preceeding year. The course of instruction leading to the degree of Doctor of Medicine includes four collegiate years of eight months each, and consists of lectures, recitations and laboratory work, with attendance at hospital and dispensary clinics. Specific medication, or prescribing the most simple direct remedy to a diseased condition or conditions, will be made a distinctive feature of the College. Practical experience has led the practitioners of this school to believe in specific medication as the safest and best form of prescribing, yet the policy of the college will be to allow a freedom of personal opinion which is characteristic of the college.

The Bennett College of Eclectic Medicine and Surgery.

The thirty-fifth annual session of the Bennett College of Eclectic Medicine and Surgery began Tuesday, September 23, 1902, and will continue eight months. The opening exercises were held in the lower amphitheater of the college. The college session will close Tuesday, May 13, 1903, on which day public exercises will be held. The course of instruction leading to the degree of Doctor of Medicine covers four collegiate years and consists of lectures, recitations and laboratory work, with regular attendance at the dispensary and hospital clinics. While a medical education gives sufficient scientific study to thoroughly train the mind, it is also developed from a vast amount of object lessons, which train the student to think and form conclusions based upon scientific and clinical knowledge. Confidence is induced as the student advances from year to year and when he completes his course in this college he is thoroughly qualified to practice the healing art. The college has always considered Therapeutics and Materia Medica an essential part of the medical practice. Specific medication, or the art of prescribing the most simple and direct remedy to correct diseased conditions in the shortest possible time, is a distinctive feature in the teaching of this college. Women are admitted to the Bennett College on an equal footing with men.

Chicago College of Dental Surgery.

The next annual session of the Chicago College of Dental Surgery will begin October 1st, 1902, and continue until April, 1903. The requirements for admission are those laid down by the National Association of Dental College Faculties. Due credit is given on diplomas from reputable literary or other colleges. Students are required to attend three full regular courses of lectures, of seven months each, in separate years, before their graduation examination. Operative Technics in the Freshman year will be given in suitably-formed classes under a special instructor, and its object will be to give students an intimate knowledge of the tissues upon which they are to operate, of the physical qualities and adaptations of the materials used, and facility in the use of instruments by systematized practice upon teeth out of the mouth. In the Junior, or second year, the course consists in the study of the Anatomy of the arteries, veins, lymphatics, nerves and organs of special sense. The work on the nervous system and the senses, is completed in this year. Pathological tissues are studied, as well as the histological structure of tumors. Didactic and clinical lectures and demonstrations in Therapeutics and Materia Medica will be given in the class each week. The prescribed course in Prosthetic Technics extends through the Freshman and Junior years, and covers thorough practical and theoretical training in the technique of Dental Prosthesis. In the Junior year the preparation of material, construction of regulating apparatus, and mechanical technics will be taught. During the Freshman year the elements of Inorganic Chemistry receive attention in connection with the study of the non-metals. The Junior year embraces the Chemistry of metals, Metallurgy, Organic Chemistry, and special chemical topics of interest to the practical dentist. During the third or Senior year the students listen to lectures on Oral Surgery, Therapeutics, Operative and Prosthetic Dentistry, Dental Anatomy, and Pathology, Orthodontia and Bacteriology, and attend clinics. In addition to the lectures, each student is required to work in the Bacteriological Laboratory, construct and use regulating appliances, operate in the Infirmary, and perform practical work in Prosthetic Dentistry.

A students library, a students sick benefit fund, and a Young Men's Christian association are sustained at the College. Realizing that "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy," the Faculty has placed a building at the disposal of the students for evening entertainments. During the winter it is customary for the classes, in turn, to give literary, musical, and social functions, which are very heartily enjoyed by all of the students.

After the exercises of the opening night, the Faculty will hold a reception, making the acquaintance of the new students. Refreshments will also be served and the College band will play.

MARRIED.

Mr. Ira Pember, a Former Student in the College, Takes a Valparaiso Girl for a Bride.—The Young Lady a Graduate From the Elocution Department.

The marriage of Mr. Ira M. Pember, of Bradner, Ohio, and Miss Clara Ely, of this city, was solemnized at the home of the bride Wednesday evening, the 24th, in the presence of a number of guests, Rev. J. H. O. Smith, of the Christian church officiating. Their home will be at Bradner. The groom is a former student in the College, where he studied music under Prof. Clark, and possesses unusual ability as a musician. The bride is a graduate from the Elocutionary department and has met with marked success as an entertainer. The bride, attended by her brother, was presented to the groom under an arch prepared of vines and flowers, and the house was decorated with golden rods and palms. The bride was becomingly attired in a dress of pale blue silk. The young couple received many beautiful and useful presents. The guests from a distance were: Ernest Pember, of Toledo, Ohio; W. R. James and Mrs. O. H. Hall, of Knox; friends of the bride from Crown Point, and Miss Emma Lanow, of Chicago. The couple left on the evening train for a trip to Denver, Col., and other points. These young people have the best wishes of their many friends for a happy and prosperous life.

AMONG THE SOCIETIES

Y. M. C. A.

SOCIAL.

The Y. M. C. A. gave a social for men at Recital hall, Saturday night, September 5th. The program consisted of songs and declamations; also stories, jokes and conundrums by members of the company. Mr. Lawrence and his banjo made quite a hit. Prof. M. E. Bogarte, of the Advisory committee spoke briefly and to the point on the Association and its place in Valparaiso College.

A JOINT MEETING OF THE Y. M. AND Y. W. C. A.

A joint meeting of both the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. on Saturday evening, September 6th was led by President H. B. Brown. The house was crowded and at the close of a very practical and earnest address by the leader, a decision and testimony meeting followed, such as not many times in a man's college life is he permitted to be in. Within a few minutes perhaps forty students spoke what they thought of Jesus Christ.

A CENSUS.

The most complete and successful census taken in this school is being gathered by the two Associations. The results are very interesting and instructive.

BIBLE STUDY RALLY.

Saturday evening, September 13th, a Bible study rally was held at 6:30 in Recital hall. Judge Gillett, of the Law department, was the speaker. The meeting was for young men. A goodly number came out and were well repaid by his address on The Bible. The speaker has spent many years in studying The Book and knows how to give his hearers the result of his work. Bible classes are being organized, and announcement of courses will be found elsewhere in this paper.

MEMBERSHIP CONTEST.

A membership contest is on in the Association. It will close on Saturday night, October 18th, at 6 o'clock, and banquet for members will be given; date to be announced later. Here are the rules of the contest:

1. The sides are to be known as the Reds and the Blues.
2. Each side shall have a captain and three lieutenants.
3. Dividing line for canvassers shall be Greenwich street, the Reds to have the west and the Blues the east territory.
4. No solicitor shall go out of his own territory to work, but may canvass any man he finds in it, no matter where he rooms. Both sides may work around the school buildings.
5. Each man who joins becomes a worker for the side who won him, and will be known by the button he wears.
6. Each day captains will post on the bulletin board at Recital hall the number obtained to date.
7. None but paid membership shall be posted. Special recognition will be given the most successful lieutenant. Watch for the buttons, a red or blue triangle on a white background.

Y. W. C. A.

The Young Women's Christian Association of Valparaiso College was reorganized for the coming school year, September 8, 1902. The officers are: President, Mary C. Richards; vice-president, Ruth Bradley; secretary, Gertrude Loop; treasurer, Delia Lamphier.

About fifteen members of the last year have returned, and twelve new ones have been added to the list.

It is the aim of the Association to present Christ to the students, to help them to lead a purer and nobler life, and to promote a Christian fellowship. Also to have the girls become better acquainted. For this last named purpose the members of the Association gave a reception in Recital hall on Wednesday evening, September 10th, which was attended by more than one hundred of the girls of the school. There were given, an instrumental solo by Miss Loop, vocal solos by Miss Parkinson and Mrs. Smith, recitals by Miss Barnes, Miss Ellsworth and Miss Martindale, which were enjoyed by all. A few games were played and a good social time was indulged in before parting.

The noonday meetings are held on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 12:30 o'clock. Meetings are also held on Saturday evenings at 6:30 o'clock. These are interesting meetings, where each one is free to express her opinions on the topic under discussion and no one can go away without being benefitted.

As no Christian neglects the study of the Bible, nor can anyone obtain a practical education without a course in Bible study classes have been organized as follows: Room 4 Columbia hall, Miss Ellsworth, teacher; Room 14 East hall, Miss Hoyt, teacher; Mrs. Templeton's parlor, Miss Richards, teacher; Room 2, No. 77 College ave., Miss Lamphier, teacher; South hall, Miss Short, teacher. It is hoped that they will be well attended and great good will be done.

ILLINOIS SOCIETY.

The Illinois society gave its opening program in Recital hall Saturday morning, September 13th. These meetings will be continued throughout the year on Saturdays at 8:30 a. m. C. J. Connell is president of the society.

THE CRESCENT SOCIETY.

The Crescent Society gives regular programs in Crescent hall on Friday evenings of each week. They are well attended and are enjoyed by the audiences. R. V. Penwell is president of the society.

THE STAR SOCIETY.

The Star Society was organized for this term the latter part of last school year. Meetings are held regularly on Saturday evenings in Star hall, upstairs in the old College building. Frank S. Randall is president.

Reading the photographer, has a change of ad in this issue of the Current.

IN THE CLASSES

PHARMACY FACTS.

The Pharmacy class has the strongest choir in Valpo.

Chas. Daxter is a new clerk at the College Pharmacy.

G. E. Small, Pharmacy '01, is back taking special work.

Hear that familiar sound around Science hall again: How would you like to be a Pharmic?

About fifteen of the Pharmic graduates have staid over to do a term of postgraduate work.

This year's class will uphold the standard of former years: Pharmacy first, last and all the time.

Another element has, presumably, been discovered. Students will adjust their vocabulary, that's all.

J. B. Winger, Pharmacy '02, was back to Valpo. on a visit last week. His home is at Cropsey, Ills.

An interesting meeting of the class was held Monday the 22d, and a strong class organization perfected.

Mr. Alexander has the Pharmacy band well organized, and the outlook is for a better band than ever.

Some of the boys have lost their books and don't know their valence. Others have forgotten the symbols.

The theory is now developed that hydrogen is a compound. Boys, wake up and see who will be the first to confirm the theory.

During Professor Roe's absence at the Eastern meet, Prof. Stoner initiated the Seniors into the mysteries of Roscoe, and the Juniors into primary Chemistry.

There is quite a large enrollment in the new Pharmacy class, and more are constantly entering. The class of 1903 promises to be the best in the history of the department.

Prof. J. N. Roe attended the National Pharmaceutical association meeting at Philadelphia the week of September 8th. He was one of the Indiana delegates appointed by Gov. Durbin.

Among the number contemplating entering the American College of Medicine and Surgery are, E. B. Moss, W. L. Rantz, W. Cowan, B. Dayfoot, "Babe" Harris, Geo. Remington and Frank Stewart.

J. H. Hartman, Pharmacy graduate of '02, left last Monday for his home in Red Wing, Minn. Mr. Hartman has been a popular clerk at the College Pharmacy and will be greatly missed by his many friends. Gus Mundt takes Mr. Hartman's place at the Pharmacy.

There is a general rush between the outgoing Seniors and ingoing Juniors at Room H between 9 and 10. These rushes are dangerous and should be avoided. Profs. Anderson and Roper have joined the Pharmacy band. Each is an artist on his particular instrument.

Alexander and Roper, the two swift tennis players of the Pharmacy department, would like to meet any two of any other class, and would not object to members of the Faculty, especially Profs. B. F. Williams and Geo. Neet. Come on now; get busy; speak now, or forever hold your peace.

The following are members of last year's class who are holding lucrative positions:

W. L. Moss is in Pineville, Ky.

W. McKown is in Frankfort, Ind.

C. J. Burroughs is located in Iowa.

C. B. Curron is mixing drugs at Monte Vista, Colo.

William Poole has a good position in a drug store in Abingdon, Ills.

J. H. Hartman goes to North Dakota to take charge of a drug store.

B. J. Winger has accepted a position as second clerk in a large drug house in a North Dakota town.

Joseph L. Bartholomew, Law '02, and Miss Autumn Lee of Crawfordsville, were married at the home of the bride's parents September 24th. They will be at home after November 1st at Valparaiso. Mr. Bartholomew is engaged in the practice of law.

D. R. Hibbbtts asks us to change the address on his paper from Madisonville, Tex., to Naples, Tex.

Miss Allie Taylor orders her paper sent to Gibson City, Ill.

SENIOR LAW NOTES.

"Don't Stamp!"

W. J. Houston has about decided to give up his legal pursuit and fall back on his old habits, i. e.: Looking after the welfare of the sisters and skinning chicken legs.

Owing to ill health, Judge McAleer gave up the moot court work of the Senior year, and now upon the bench doth sit T. M. Hembroff, city judge of Hammond.

Among those to come in since the organization of the class are, M. H. Stanton, Bert Parker, A. S. Flinn, G. R. McCarty, Carey Caldwell, C. J. Marshall and C. D. Fithian.

W. E. Barnhart, a graduate of last year, is often seen in our midst. Mr. Barnhart is now an occupant of the office of T. H. Heard, and we are sure Mr. Heard chose wisely.

One of the quietest elections that has ever been jerked off in this class since they organized as Juniors over a year ago, was that of Friday, Sept. 12th. Politics were laid aside, and everything was done by acclamation. A. S. Flinn was chosen president, W. J. Stebbens secretary, Victor Welman treasurer, and C. P. Holt justice of the peace.

Geo. R. McCarty has been confined to his room with a broken arm. While playing ball September 13th, Mr. McCarty, by some unknown scientific twist, severed the humeral bone of his right arm.

What some of the boys have been doing in vacation time:

Lane:—Playing a little ball.

Eder:—Writing legal papers.

Williams:—Dabbling in politics.

Breiner:—Coaxing his moustache.

Welman:—Training down for the races.

Caldwell:—Picking pears up in Michigan.

McCarty:—Temperance work in Milwaukee.

Knox:—Learning how to write a love letter.

Yentzer:—Superintending a Pennsylvania coal strike.

Stanton:—Going to picnics with Missouri corn-fed girls.

Templeton:—Winning the affections of a Kansas lassie.

Perry:—Advanced lessons in How to Care for the Baby.

Cooney:—Playing croquet with Wyoming school ma'ams.

Ayers:—Taming the long-horned cattle in the "wild and wooly" west.

Small:—Writing the big ads for Lowenstine's department store, and also getting out a large amount of other advertising matter for the same store.

WITH THE MUSICIANS.

Mr. H. D. McMillan has organized a chorus and class of private pupils at Hobart.

Miss Emma Cowan writes from Sunbeam, Ills., making inquiries about the Music department of the Valparaiso College. She has two pupils, the Misses Budelier, who will probably come here to school.

Geo. J. Nuepert is in Idaho Springs, Colo., giving private piano and vocal lessons; also doing club and chorus work. Has been there since June 1st and likes the country so well that he has decided to remain a year or two.

Miss Edna Huntington, of Valparaiso, who received a diploma from the Piano course in the College at the close of last year, has organized a class of music pupils at Westville. She is organist at the Christian tabernacle in this place.

The first of a series of lectures and musical entertainments by members of the Faculty and advanced pupils of the Musical Conservatory, was given September 25th, when Prof. H. L. Butler lectured on the subject, "Ancient Music." If this first number is any criterion, the series promises to be very interesting and profitable to all music students. Following are the announcements for the coming numbers:

Oct. 2.—Lecture: "Early Italian Music," - Mr. H. L. Butler

Oct. 9.—Lecture: "Early German Music," Mr. H. L. Butler

Oct. 16.—Recital by Advanced Pupils

Oct. 23.—Lecture; "The Pianoforte Sonata," Mr. E. C. Chaffee

Oct. 30.—Song Recital: - - Mrs. Jennie Thatcher-Beach

Miss Bessie Munsey, a post-graduate in Voice of last year, writes from Austin, Minn., where she is director of the Music department of the Normal school, that she has a large class, and is doing well in every way. Success to her.

COMMERCIAL AND STENOGRAPHIC.

O. C. Morningstar is expecting to come from Saxton, Pa., to finish a business course in the Valparaiso College.

Frank Barton, who was in the Commercial department in '99, has lately accepted a position as bookkeeper in a department store at Danville, Ill.

William E. Buelow, who graduated from the Commercial and Shorthand courses in '99, is bookkeeper and stenographer for Harris & Hosler, dealers in grain, wool, and other farm products, Reedsburg, Wis.

The Phonographic Institute Company, of Cincinnati, Ohio, has added another neat booklet to its already large list of publications. This office acknowledges the receipt of a copy and has carefully examined it. It is the "History of Sindbad the Sailor," clearly printed in the Ben Pitman easy reporting style of Phonography, and is very instructive and entertaining to students of shorthand.

JUNIOR LAW.

Those who are in a position to compare the Junior Law class of this year with the one of last, say that the class this year is larger than last year's Fall term class.

The Juniors have organized a literary society which meets on Wednesday night of each week. Orations, declamations and debates are features.

Jessie Williams is president of the Junior class organization, and Claude Ridgeley is secretary.

Dr. S. J. Young, the Osteopath doctor, has a new card on Page 12 of this issue. Dr. Young makes special appointments for the accommodation of students.

CHICAGO COLLEGE OF DENTAL SURGERY

DENTAL DEPARTMENT LAKE FOREST UNIVERSITY

The college building occupies a prominent position among a group of fourteen others, comprising medical colleges, hospitals and schools, and the clinical patients therefore are very numerous and interesting cases of every variety.

The lot on which the building stands has a frontage of eighty-five feet. It is a five-story and basement structure, the basement and the first story being of rock-faced Bedford stone, and the superstructure of pressed brick and terra-cotta trimmings.

The building has three entrances; the main one through a large cut stone doorway surmounted by a stone arch beautifully ornamented with carved work. The interior is finished in hard wood according to the latest idea of elegance, convenience and comfort.

The entire six floors of the building are divided into lecture rooms, class rooms, clinic rooms, etc., with the exception of the second floor, which is devoted to the dental infirmary. The chief lecture room has a seating capacity of four hundred and fifty students. There is also a dissecting room, thoroughly equipped with all the requisites for the study of human anatomy.

There are Histological, Chemical, Bacteriological laboratories also laboratories for the study of Operative Prosthetic Technics and for the construction of artificial dentures.
